COMPLAINT

Violation of Rights

On July 18, 2002, I, Theodore F. Nuby, Plaintiff, was sitting in my auto at the MBTA's Ashmont Station waiting for my wife. Officer John Dwyer approached my auto and for no reason started to poke me in the chest. Officer Dwyer was aware that I had been unable to appear in Court on a civil action on April 1, 2002, due to having heart surgery. When I asked him to stop poking me, he would not so I closed the car window. Officer Dwyer broke the window and I was arrested for assault and battery on a police officer with a dangerous weapon.

Later that day, my wife had to borrow money from our son in order to post bail for me. I advised the bondswoman that I had a civil case in Waltham and asked if it would be all right to report to Court a day late. She said that was all right, so I reported on the next Court date.

When I next appeared in Court, I was assigned Attorney Mark Conner who told me to plead guilty when I returned.

31 On November 26, 2002, I went to Court in Dorchester. I told Attorney Mark Connor that 32 I did not want to plead guilty on the case, but he was insistent. Judge Diane Moriarty refused to 33 let me have another attorney, and would not grant a continuance so that I could get another
34 attorney.

35
36 I therefore plead guilty, got probation, and the lawyer had me sign a document that was 37 supposed to release me from the Court. That document turned out to be an admission to another
38 crime which I knew nothing about for citation #731988 (enclosed Exhibit 1). The ticket that I
39 had actually appeared in Court for, three citations later, was #731991 dated July 18, 2002.

40
41 Although ticket #731988 was from the same book as Officer John Dwyer's citation, it
42 was dated January 18, 2002, it was designated for South Boston Court (but was later heard in 43 Dorchester), and it was signed by Detective Joseph Leary. The automobile was listed as a 44 Cadillac Seville.

45
46 I was never sent a summons to appear for case #1139 (citation #731988), and only found
47 out about the trial when I applied for a new driver's license which had been lost when the same
48 MBTA police officer arrested me again for assault and battery on a police officer, for which I
49 was found not guilty. After posting bail on that matter, I asked the bondsman if I could report on 50 the second Court date as I had a civil matter the next day in Waltham. He said it was okay, but 51 when I reported for Court, I was defaulted by Judge Diane Moriarty and spent two weeks in jail.

52
53 The South Boston Court knew nothing about the ticket, and Detective Leary admitted to 54 me that he had never gone to Court on any case against me. I tried to obtain the tape of the trial
55 on three occasions, but was informed by the Dorchester Court Clerk on February 18, 2005, that it
56 is missing/lost (tape #3699, start 2330, end 2802).

57
58 Attorney Mark Conner obtained my signature under false pretense.

59
60 Judge Diane Moriarty defaulted me and put me in jail when I had not broken the law.
61 She tried me on a case that I knew nothing about, using a witness who did not actually appear in

62 Court, Detective Joseph Leary. I, Theodore F. Nuby, was not in Court during the alleged trial
63 and the tape(s) is missing.

64
65 I believe that Judge Moriarty excluded her immunity by committing an illegal act in this 66 trial.

68 Due to the two citations and the actions taken in Court, I was assessed ten points
69 surcharge and I lost my driver's license for one year until I brought the case back to Court. My 70 fees amounted to $1,090.00. It cost $1,600.00 to get my license back. The surcharge increased
71 approximately $800.00.

72
73 WHEREFOR:

74 Because of the expenses incurred of $3,490.00 and the loss of income for one year,
75 $12,000.00, I would ask that this Court rectify the record, grant me the sum of $15,490.00, and
76 take any action the Court deems fit with regard to the illegal actions taken against me. I ask for a
77 speedy hearing or trial, as I am a 71-year-old man who is on dialysis seven days per week.

78
79 I, Theodore F. Nuby, swear under the pains and penalties of perjury that all of the 80 statements made herein are the truth to the best of my knowledge.
